Kingston, Ontario.
November 19, 1953.

We, the undersigned members of the Beth Israel Congregation, hereby declare that we are willing to purchase, on behalf of the Congregation, a parcel of land fronting on Union St. in Kingston, having a frontage of 200 feet more or less, and having a depth of 300 feet more or less, said parcel now being owned by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kingston.

We further declare that each undersigned member undertakes a personal financial obligation to contribute to the purchase of the said parcel of land, provided the total cost of the land shall not exceed $125 per foot frontage, and provided further that each of the undersigned shall not be responsible for more than his proportionate share of the total sum, share and share alike, and provided further that this agreement shall bear the signatures of the following: Harry Abramsky, Hyman Rosen, Charles Orenstein, S. J. Cohen, Harry Rosen.

It is further understood and agreed that this parcel shall be purchased for and used by the Beth Israel Congregation, and further that upon agreement by a general meeting of the B. I. Congregation to accept title by purchase to this parcel the undersigned shall thereby be relieved of all personal financial or other liability in connection with said parcel.
